NEW YORK, June 4.—Yesterday's reaction was taken as a demonstration of the futility of the attempt made carlier in the day to put prices up and professional operators this morning proceeded to throw over such holdings as they had taken on with expectation of an upment turn of prices. There was not do throw over such holdings as they had taken on with expectation of an upward turn of prices. There was not much in the news of the day having a bearing on values. The weakhess of the market increased as the day progressed and before the close too the appearance of forced light the weak.

A number of the Canadian stocks showed a tendency to recover from the externed depression caused by the Canadian flandal dispression that after effects of those troubles were to be feared at other points. The greatest selling pressure to-day converged on Analgamated Copper, of which thousands of shares were thrown upon the market with seemingly disregard of what prices shortly before the close, an extreme decline of 5 points for the day and 1-2 points lower than ever before touched in the history of the company. American Smelting also showed effects of special pressure. Brokers employed in this selling caused the movement to be associated with the pool which is understood to have operated in Amalgamated factor causing discouragement was the free selling of Pennsylvania throughout the day. This stock touched 123 3-4, a decline of 17-8 on the day, and 13-4 below the previous low record on the movement. This compares with the subscription price to stockholders, which has also been underwritten by a syndicate at 129. Liquidation of this stock caused a bad impression upon sentiment all around.

Flurry in the call money market to 41-2 late in the day was evidence that there was urgent requirements to be met. An incident of the day was the free stocks, large buying orders being executed by houses formerly acting for the steel syndicate. The market closed weak practically at the lowest.

COPPER TRADE BEARISH:

It was noticeable that Amalgamated Copper responded to weakness in the copper stocks in London, while it had not on the previous day reflected a fair improvement there. There is good autority for saying that trade interests are rather bearlsh, and the Standard Oil people are doing nothing to support. The general expectation is that there will be lower prices for the metal.

CANADIAN PACIFIC FIRM:
Canadian Pacific was one of the firmest stocks on the list, and London operators make no secret of their belief that New York is oversoid and will have considerable difficulty in finding stock to deliver. All the liquidation on account of the Ames failure was readily absorbed for foreign account.

WORDSER GOOD BUYING:
Wormser was a good buyer around the room in the carly trading. The improving weather reports from the middle West accounted in some measure for the good support in the

OPERATING ON LONG SIDE:

A. A. Housemen & Co. had most of the important buying orders in Sicel preferred, and the recent transactions in these issues have given the impression in some quarters that the bond underwriting syndicate and Mr. Keene are pretty much of one inlind, and are both operating on the long side.

STREET SKEPTICAL:

The street is still very skeptical shout Wednesday's selling of Pounsylvanis. It is at least taken as obvious that no syndicate transactions would be done through a firm so generally credited with intimate associations with Pennsylvania bunking interests as Probst, Wetzler & Co. It is also somewhat unusual for foreign operators of importance to send large selling orders to this murket at 7:30 P. M., Louden time.

WEAK IN THE SECOND HOUR:

The market developed considerable weakness in the second hour on pressure from the principal traders, together with some seiling, which looked as if it came from Boston. The latter prelopment, of course, started the rumor that we will be the constant of the course of th

The attack on Twin-City was a failure, but the Soc issues responded to pressure, and good

FORCED LIQUIDATION:
The weakness in Northwest gave some color to the reports current of forced liquidation.

AMALGAMATED COPPER:

It was natural that the selling of Amalgamated Copper should be ascribed to the Lewisohn interest, in view of the brokers who executed the orders. It is probable also that the inference was correct, although it is early to influence a market by giving orders to a house identified with some particular interest. The tradition metals and talks 12 cents for the metal.

NEGROES DIDN'T LIKE FUNERAL SERMON

New Englanders' Political Harangue Over Their Dead Disgusted Them. The colored people of Richmond heard one address during the educational con-ference which they did not think filled the bill. It was delivered by a New Eng-ference which they did not think filled the bill. It was delivered by a New England minister at the funeral of a colored woman in the Sixth Mount Zion Baptist Church, probably better known as John Jasper's church. A number of the visitors wanted to hear a colored man preach, and a funeral offered the desired opportunity, so Rev. Edgar Gardner Murphy, of Alabama, and several New England ministers went out to Mount Zion.

The pastor, who was about to enter upon the service, recognized his distinguished visitors, and invited them to occupy seats in the pulpit. The pastor then asked Mr. Murphy to suggest one of their number to take his place and preach the sermon. This a New England preacher agreed to do, and delivered, according to members of the congregation and the famility of the deceased, one of the most violent political harangues they had ever listened to.

They did not regard it as a sermon at all, and thought great injustice had been done the dead, as she was not mentioned at all or in the slightest way referred to. The visitors themselves are said to have been much supprised and mortified at their companion's tunusual address for such an occasion, while the relatives of the deceased were hopping mad. There was nothing for them to do, however, but go on with the burlat. They declared that they would certainly have another funeral in honor of their dead, en the ground that the service of the New Englander was mockery and nonsense, so far as they were concerned

Thus Speaks of His Association With Negro Troops at Santiago-Dedicates Arsenal and Armory at Springfield.

(By Associated Press.)

SPRINGFHELD, ILL, June 4.—President Roosevelt spent four hours in Springfield to-day, during which time he dedicated the new State arsenal and armory erected at a cost of $150,000, donated by citizens of Springfield, and addressed the Lincoln-McKinley Veteran Voters' Association at the Lincoln monument. Among the thousands who heard the President speak at the monument was Company II, of the Eighth Regiment (colored), I. N. G. After greeting the veterans' association the President said:

"It seems to me eminently fitting that

"It seems to me eminently fitting that the guard around the tomb of Lincoln should be composed of colored soldlers. It was my own good fortune at Santlago to serve beside colored troops. A man who is good enough to shed his blood for his country is good enough to be given a square deal afterwards. More than that no man is entitled to, and less than that no man shall have."

The President's party then drove back to the arsenal, where the dedication exercises took place before 10,000 people assembled in the great hall. The President homage could be effectively paid to Lincoln's memory "by seeing to it that this republic's life, social and political, civic and industrial, is shaped now in accordance with the ideals which Lincoln preached and which all his life long he practiced."

A LEADING INSTITUTION OF LEARNING.

There could be no better school selected for the education of girls than the Mary Baldwin Seminary for Young Ladles, Lecared at Staunton, in the picturesque Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, where the climate is unusually healthful and the scenery beautiful beyond description, the inspiration for study is ever present and the school days pass swiftly and pleasantly. The life of the school is that of a reined and cultured home.

During the last session there was enrolled 265 students from twenty-four States, and it is likely that the increase this coming session will be much greater. Those who are seeking a school where the highest ideals in the training of girls are practiced should send for a beautifully illustrated catalogue, it tells of the unequalled advantages in music, art, ilterature and science, and many other features.
